

You are cordially invited to nominate candidates for the

James B. Porter, Jr. Award for Technology Leadership

Nomination Form

The James B. Porter, Jr. Award for Technology Leadership is the highest recognition for technology advancement given by the Construction Industry Institute.

Nominee: _____ Company: _____

Nominator: _____ Company: _____

Please return this form by April 20, 2018, with a summary of your nominee's qualifications with respect to the award criteria and resume to:

Debbie Samilpa
Construction Industry Institute
3925 W. Braker Lane (R4500)
Austin, TX 78759-5316
dsamilpa@cii.utexas.edu

- Past nomination submittals must be updated and resubmitted.

NOTE: Nominees cannot be active on the CII Executive Committee or part of the CII staff.

Complete the following selection criteria as they relate to your nominee:

- 1. Significant technology awareness contributions to the construction industry.
- 2. Demonstration of the highest degree of personal dedication to the development and advancement of technology within the capital projects industry.
- 3. A leadership position in the construction industry from which others can be influenced by example and direction.
- 4. A record of accomplishment that brings distinction to the recipient, the organization with which he or she has been associated, and to the industry at large.