

CII EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Master the Art of Exceptional Leadership

January 12 - 21, 2021
The University of Texas at Austin

The CII Executive Leadership Program at The University of Texas at Austin is the premier program for the development of future leaders for the capital projects industry.

This accelerated nine-day custom-designed program will develop your capabilities to lead high-performing teams.

Work with award-winning, approachable faculty to find solutions for today's business challenges and construct a comprehensive toolkit of the skills that effective leaders own.

Another popular course returns for the 2021 program:

Executive Negotiation
Skills Workshop
with Doug Dierking

- Multiple Parties
- Interaction Based
- Seeking to Reach Agreement
- Formally and Informally Guides and Regulates Behavior

Program enrollment is limited to assure relationship-building among participants. Previous years' programs have prepared future leaders to succeed in top management positions. Professional development continuing education credits will be awarded.

This tentatively-scheduled event may be postponed pending the outcome of COVID-19.
